What kinds of financial services and products are available?

100percentinvesting provides general financial advice about the risks, returns and features of various financial products. Information on 100percentinvesting.com.au website is considered to be General Advice under the Corporations Law and does not consider a potential investor's own personal needs, circumstances or objectives.

What do these services cost & How is 100 Percent Investing paid?

100percentinvesting website operates on a commission basis. We will either receive commissions as upfront, ongoing, or a combination of both for lodgement of your investment. The exact amount that we receive varies from investment to investment.

The exact commission for each investment is shown on their respective screen.

Note that with many investments we will receive an upfront commission that is not taken from your investment funds. When this occurs we will provide you with a cash rebate to provide an initial return on the funds invested.

Other benefits

Some product providers may give Altitude Private Wealth or your financial adviser non-commission benefits such as entertainment or sponsorship. Both APW and your financial adviser maintain a register in line with industry standards to document any alternative forms of payment received. This register is publicly available and must be provided within 7 days of the request date.

Does APW have any relationships or associations with financial product issuers?

Your financial adviser can provide advice on products from a wide range of financial product providers. Imperium Group Limited (IGL) ABN 89 104 065 250 AFSL 264125, has a minority shareholding in APW. IGL is associated with Armytage Private Limited ABN 51 079 960 419, AFSL No. 238519. Armytage is an investment manager for a number of registered managed investment schemes and operates a discretionary management account business for Wholesale Clients. Armytage receives fees for the provision of these investment management and advisory services. The basis of these fees is disclosed in the relevant fund's Product Disclosure Statement or within the relevant investment management agreement. Our recommendations may include products issued by Armytage Private Limited.

Our responsibility is to ensure that you receive the most appropriate investment strategy and investment product advice. Accordingly, in order for an investment product to be recommended, it must pass through an in-depth research process that analyses the appropriateness of the investment, and then our Investment Committee will determine its suitability to your particular needs and circumstances.

Personal information & Mail List

Personal information that we have collected is stored electronically. If you submit details to be on our mailing list we will only send appropriate communications and your details are never passed onto third parties. We are committed to ensuring the privacy and security of the information provided.

Who may access the information you provide?

APW and your financial adviser are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy, which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. Please ask your financial adviser if you wish to obtain a copy of the privacy policy.

It is important to note that in order to best meet your needs and provide you with financial services and advice, your financial adviser may need to disclose your personal information to other parties. Typically these parties may include fund managers, life companies, related entities and other licensees. Similarly your financial adviser may bring to your attention products and services or other information which may be relevant to your situation. You will be given the opportunity to choose whether you wish to receive such information.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

APW maintain a Professional Indemnity (PI) insurance policy. This insurance covers advice, actions and recommendations which have been authorised by APW to be provided by your adviser. These arrangements satisfy the requirements imposed by the Corporations Act 2001 and financial services regulations. It provides cover for claims made against us and our representatives / employees including claims in relation to the conduct of representatives/employees who no longer work for us but who did so at the time of the relevant conduct.
